General Services Agreement

This Agreement is entered into between the Service Provider (hereafter "Freelancer") and the Client, effective as of the start date specified in the attached Scope of Work. This document outlines the terms under which the Freelancer will provide professional services to the Client.

Scope of Services

The Freelancer agrees to perform the specific tasks detailed in the attached Scope of Work (SOW).

Any additional work requested by the Client that falls outside the defined SOW must be documented in a written Change Order signed by both parties before work begins. This ensures clarity regarding deliverables, timelines, and costs for any extra tasks.

Payment Terms

The Client agrees to pay the Freelancer a total fee as outlined in the SOW. Unless otherwise stated, payment is due according to the following schedule: 50% of the total fee is due upon signing this Agreement to secure the project slot, and the remaining 50% is due upon final delivery of all deliverables. Invoices are payable within 14 days of receipt. Late payments will incur a late fee of 1.5% per month or the maximum rate allowed by law, whichever is lower. The Freelancer reserves the right to suspend work if payment is more than 10 days overdue.

Revision Policy

The agreed-upon fee includes two rounds of revisions for each deliverable. Revisions are defined as minor adjustments to the initial work product based on the Client's feedback. Revisions that require a fundamental change to the original concept, structure, or scope are considered new work and will be billed at the Freelancer's standard hourly rate. The Client must provide consolidated feedback within 5 business days of receiving the initial draft to keep the project on schedule.

Intellectual Property (IP)

Upon full payment of all fees, the Client obtains full ownership of the final delivered work products. The Freelancer retains ownership of all pre-existing materials, tools, and methodologies used to create the work. The Freelancer retains the right to display the completed work in their portfolio and marketing materials, unless the Client explicitly requests confidentiality in writing. The Freelancer warrants that the work is original and does not infringe upon the intellectual property rights of any third party.

Termination

Either party may terminate this Agreement with 7 days' written notice. If the Client terminates the agreement after work has commenced, the Client is responsible for paying for all work completed up to the date of termination, as well as any non-refundable fees.

Web Design & Development Contract

This contract governs the relationship between the Designer (Freelancer) and the Client for the design and/or development of a website or web application.

Scope of Services

The Designer will provide the services listed in the attached Project Brief, which typically includes wireframing, visual design, frontend development, and basic content integration. The scope explicitly excludes backend database configuration, e-commerce payment gateway setup, and ongoing content writing unless specified. The Client is responsible for providing all necessary assets (text, images, logos) in high-resolution formats at least 5 business days before the scheduled design phase begins.

Payment Terms

The total project fee is broken down into three milestones:

1. 30% upon signing and approval of the Project Brief.
2. 40% upon approval of the final visual design (mockups).
3. 30% upon final launch and transfer of website access credentials.

Invoices are net 14. If the project is paused or delayed due to Client feedback taking longer than 5 business days per stage, a holding fee of $50/day will apply after the 5th day to cover the reserved calendar slot.

Revision Policy

The fee includes one round of revisions for the wireframe stage and two rounds of revisions for the visual design stage. Code-level changes after the design is approved are billed at the Designer's hourly rate. "Revisions" refer to tweaks in color, spacing, or minor content swaps. Requests to change the layout, add new pages, or alter the core user flow after approval are treated as change orders.

Intellectual Property (IP)

Upon final payment, the Client owns the final website code and design files. The Designer retains ownership of any custom scripts or plugins created prior to this engagement and grants the Client a perpetual, non-exclusive license to use them within the website. The Designer retains the right to showcase the live website in their portfolio. If the Client fails to pay the final milestone, the Designer retains full ownership of the code and design assets until payment is cleared.

Maintenance & Support

This contract covers the build phase only. It does not include ongoing hosting, security updates, or content management. A separate Monthly Retainer Agreement may be executed for ongoing support.

Copywriting Services Agreement

This agreement defines the terms for the creation of written content, including blog posts, web copy, email marketing, and sales materials.

Scope of Services

The Freelancer will write the content pieces listed in the Content Calendar attached to this agreement. The Freelancer is responsible for research, outlining, drafting, and editing. The Client is responsible for providing accurate brand voice guidelines, key messages, and any required technical data. The Freelancer is not liable for factual errors in information provided by the Client.

Payment Terms

Payment is based on a per-piece or per-word rate specified in the invoice. For ongoing engagements, a monthly retainer is invoiced on the 1st of each month. One-time projects require 50% upfront and 50% upon delivery. All invoices are due within 10 business days. The Freelancer may withhold delivery of the final files until the invoice is paid in full.

Revision Policy

The fee includes two rounds of edits per piece of content. Edits are limited to style, tone, and minor structural adjustments. If the Client requests a complete rewrite due to a change in direction or fundamental misunderstanding of the brief, this is considered new work and will be billed at 50% of the original rate for that piece. Feedback must be provided in a consolidated document to streamline the editing process.

Intellectual Property (IP)

Upon receipt of full payment, the Client owns the copyright to the final copy. The Freelancer retains the right to use excerpts of the work (not more than 200 words) in their portfolio and marketing materials to demonstrate expertise. The Freelancer warrants that the copy is original and free from copyright infringement. The Freelancer does not guarantee specific search engine rankings or conversion rates, as these depend on factors outside their control.
