

ChatGPT for Real Estate Agents: 100 Client Communication Templates

RenWork Digital Products

1. Lead Response and Nurturing

Prompt 1: The "Speed-to-Lead" Zillow Response

Instruction: "Act as a top-performing real estate agent. Write a short, high-energy text message response to a new Zillow lead who asked about a specific address. The tone should be professional yet personal. Do not ask for their phone number (they are already texting you). Ask one specific qualifying question about their timeline. Keep it under 50 words."

Template: "Hi [Lead Name], thanks for reaching out about [Address]! I'm [Agent Name]. I have the latest details on this one. To ensure it's the right fit, are you looking to move in the next 30, 60, or 90 days?"

Prompt 2: The "No Answer" Phone Follow-Up

Instruction: "Write a polite, non-pushy text message to a lead who did not answer my call earlier today. Acknowledge they might be busy. Provide a value-add link to the property or a market stat. End with a low-pressure call to action."

Template: "Hi [Lead Name], hope you're having a great day! I tried calling earlier but didn't catch you. Just wanted to send over this quick video tour of [Address] so you can see it in action: [Link]. Let me know if you'd like to chat later this week!"

Prompt 3: The "Ghost" Re-Engagement (30 Days)

Instruction: "Create a re-engagement email for a lead who went silent 30 days ago. Use a 'breakup' tone but keep it warm. Ask if their needs have changed or if they are still active. Include a subject line that is curiosity-inducing but not clickbaity."

Template: Subject: Checking in on [Property Type] search

Hi [Lead Name], I haven't heard from you in a while and wanted to check in. Are you still actively looking for a [Property Type], or have your plans changed? If you're still searching, I've just found two new listings in [Neighborhood] that match your criteria. Want me to send them over?

Prompt 4: The "Budget Mismatch" Softener

Instruction: "Write a response to a lead who wants a home in a budget that doesn't exist in their preferred area. Be honest but hopeful. Suggest two alternative neighborhoods with better value. Maintain a consultative tone."

Template: "Hi [Lead Name], I ran the numbers on your budget for [Preferred Area], and unfortunately, inventory is very tight at that price point right now. However, [Alternative Neighborhood A] and [Alternative Neighborhood B] have seen great appreciation and offer more square footage for your budget. Would you be open to touring a few homes in those areas this weekend?"

Prompt 5: The "Just Listed" Teaser for Leads

Instruction: "Write an exclusive email to past leads and current clients announcing a new listing I just took. Make them feel like insiders. Provide 3 key features and a direct link to schedule a private tour."

Template: Subject: Exclusive: New on the market in [Neighborhood]
Hi [Lead Name], I just listed [Address] and thought of you immediately. It features [Feature 1], [Feature 2], and [Feature 3]. I'm holding a private preview this Saturday at 10 AM. Click here to secure your spot: [Link].

Prompt 6: The "Comparison Shopper" Retainer

Instruction: "Write a response to a lead who says they are also working with another agent. Be gracious but confident. State how you differentiate yourself (e.g., data-driven approach, local expertise). Ask for a 5-minute call to provide value regardless of who they hire."

Template: "Hi [Lead Name], I appreciate your transparency. I work with many clients who compare agents, and I respect that process. My approach focuses heavily on [Differentiator, e.g., data-driven pricing strategy]. Even if we don't end up working together, I'm happy to give you a quick 5-minute update on the current inventory in [Area] so you have the full picture."

Prompt 7: The "Loan Pre-Approval" Nudge

Instruction: "Write a gentle reminder to a buyer lead who hasn't provided their pre-approval letter yet. Explain why this is crucial for making competitive offers. Include a list of top local lenders they can choose from."

Template: "Hi [Lead Name], to ensure we are ready to move fast when we find the right home, I need your pre-approval letter. This shows sellers we are serious buyers. Here are three highly rated lenders in [City]: [Lender 1], [Lender 2], [Lender 3]. Let me know which one you'd like to start with, or if you need help getting the process started."

Prompt 8: The "Weekend Tour" Confirmation

Instruction: "Write a confirmation text for a weekend showing. Include the address, time, and a reminder to bring photo ID. Add a friendly note about parking or specific entry instructions."

Template: "Hi [Lead Name], confirming your tour for Saturday at 2 PM at [Address]. Please bring a photo ID. Parking is available in the rear driveway. I'll text you when I'm 5 minutes away. Looking forward to showing you this gem!"

Prompt 9: The "Post-Tour" Silent Follow-Up

Instruction: "Write a text message for the evening after a showing where the lead didn't provide immediate feedback. Ask for their honest thoughts without sounding desperate. Offer to show similar properties if this one wasn't a fit."

Template: "Hi [Lead Name], hope the tour went well! I'd love to hear your honest thoughts on [Address]. If it wasn't quite right, no worries at all--I have a few other options in your price range that might hit the mark. What aspects did you like or dislike about the home?"

Prompt 10: The "Price Drop" Alert

Instruction: "Write an alert email to a buyer lead when a property they viewed has dropped its price. Highlight the new price and compare it to the original. Urgency is key."

Template: Subject: Price Drop: [Address] is now $[Amount]
Hi [Lead Name], quick update! The price on [Address] has dropped by $[Amount], bringing it to $[New Price]. This brings it closer to your budget. Given the recent activity in [Neighborhood], I recommend we act quickly if this is still a contender. Are you free to view it again tomorrow?"

Prompt 11: The "Out of Office" Auto-Response

Instruction: "Write a professional auto-response for when I am out of office or at an open house. Set expectations for response time. Provide a link to my website and a number for urgent matters."

Template: "Hi, this is [Agent Name] from [Brokerage]. I am currently assisting clients and may not be able to respond immediately. Please leave your details, and I will get back to you within 4 hours. For urgent matters, please call [Number]. You can also browse my active listings here: [Link]."

Prompt 12: The "Client Referral" Activation

Instruction: "Write a message to a past client who is now a homeowner, asking if they know anyone looking to buy or sell. Keep it casual. Mention their recent home as a conversation starter."

Template: "Hi [Client Name], I hope you're settling in well at [New Address]! I'm currently working with a few families who are looking to move into the [Neighborhood] area. If anyone comes to mind who might be looking to buy or sell, I'd truly appreciate the introduction. No pressure at all!"

Prompt 13: The "Inventory Shortage" Explanation

Instruction: "Write an email explaining why there is low inventory in the current market. Use simple terms. Provide three strategies for buyers to stay competitive (e.g., flexible dates, waiving contingencies carefully)."

Template: Subject: Navigating the Low-Inventory Market

Hi [Lead Name], the current market is tight, with average days-on-market down to [Number]. To stay competitive, consider: 1) Being flexible on move-in dates. 2) Having pre-approval ready. 3) Researching neighborhoods with slightly higher inventory. Let's discuss a strategy that fits your risk tolerance."

Prompt 14: The "Expired Listing" Pitch to Sellers

Instruction: "Write a pitch to a seller whose listing recently expired. Focus on what went wrong (e.g., pricing, photos) without blaming them. Offer a free re-listing strategy session."

Template: "Hi [Seller Name], I noticed your home at [Address] recently expired. Often, this happens due to initial pricing or visibility, not the home itself. I'd love to offer a free, no-obligation strategy session to analyze your listing and create a plan to sell it quickly. Are you free this Thursday?"

Prompt 15: The "New Neighborhood" Introduction

Instruction: "Write an intro email to a lead who has expressed interest in moving to a new, developing neighborhood. Highlight safety, schools, and future