

200 ChatGPT Prompts for Small Business Owners

RenWork Digital Products

Marketing Copy

1. Act as a direct response copywriter. Write a high-converting landing page headline for [Product/Service] that addresses the pain point of [Customer Problem] and promises a specific benefit of [Desired Outcome].
2. Create a 500-word blog post outline for [Target Audience] about [Topic]. Include an engaging hook, three main arguments with supporting evidence, and a clear call-to-action for [Business Action].
3. Write a compelling "About Us" page for [Business Name]. We help [Target Customer] achieve [Goal] by providing [Service]. Tone: Professional, warm, and trustworthy.
4. Draft a sales letter for [Product] using the AIDA framework (Attention, Interest, Desire, Action). Highlight these three unique selling points: [USP 1], [USP 2], [USP 3].
5. Generate five different value propositions for [Business Type] that differentiate us from competitors who offer [Competitor Feature].
6. Write a 100-word elevator pitch for [Business Name] to use at networking events. It must clearly state who we serve, what problem we solve, and why our solution is superior.
7. Create a case study narrative for [Client Name] who used [Service] to achieve [Result]. Structure it as: Situation, Complication, Resolution, and Outcome.
8. Write a product launch announcement email for [Product]. The tone should be exciting but professional. Include a subject line that encourages opens and a P.S. section for a bonus offer.
9. Develop a slogan for [Brand] that is no more than five words long, memorable, and reflects our core value of [Core Value].
10. Write a persuasive paragraph for our website's homepage that explains why [Target Audience] should choose [Business Name] over DIY solutions or larger corporations.

11. Create a list of 10 emotional triggers that can be used in marketing copy for [Product Category] to drive immediate sales.

12. Rewrite this existing weak headline: "[Current Headline]" into three options that are more specific, benefit-driven, and curiosity-inducing.

13. Write a testimonial request script for a customer service rep to use after a successful service delivery. It should feel natural and not pushy.

14. Draft a "Pain Point" section for a landing page that describes the frustration of [Customer Problem] in vivid, relatable language.

15. Create a comparison chart description for [Our Product] vs. [Competitor Product], highlighting our advantages in [Feature 1] and [Feature 2] without directly bashing the competitor.

Customer Emails

16. Write a welcome email for new subscribers to [Newsletter Name]. Introduce the brand, set expectations for what they will receive, and include a link to [Resource/Offer].

17. Draft a re-engagement email for customers who have not purchased in [Number] months. Offer a [Discount]% discount code valid for [Timeframe] to encourage a return visit.

18. Create a "cart abandonment" email series (3 emails). Email 1: Gentle reminder. Email 2: Address potential objections. Email 3: Last chance with urgency.

19. Write a post-purchase follow-up email for [Product]. Ask for a review, provide helpful tips on how to use the product, and suggest a complementary product.

20. Draft a newsletter intro for the [Month/Season] issue. Theme: [Theme]. Include three article teasers and a featured product spotlight.

21. Write a personalized email to a VIP client to thank them for their lifetime business. Mention their specific purchase history and offer them early access to [New Product].

22. Create an email to inform customers of a price increase effective [Date]. Explain the reasons (e.g., inflation, improved quality) and emphasize the added value they are now receiving.

23. Draft a "win-back" email for churned customers. Use a story-driven approach to remind them of the value they once received and offer a special incentive to return.

24. Write a holiday greeting email for [Holiday]. Keep it brief, warm, and include a subtle mention of [Business Service] without being overly salesy.

25. Create an email to introduce a new team member, [Name], who will be handling [Department]. Highlight their expertise and invite customers to reach out with questions.
26. Draft a survey invitation email. Keep it under 150 words. Explain why their feedback matters and offer a [Incentive] for completion.
27. Write a "we missed you" email for a customer who opened our last three emails but didn't click. Ask a simple question to re-establish engagement.
28. Create a referral program promotion email. Explain how the customer earns [Reward] for referring a friend, and provide the unique referral link.
29. Draft an apology email for a service disruption caused by [Reason]. Take full responsibility, explain the fix, and offer [Compensation] as a gesture of goodwill.
30. Write a "launch countdown" email series (3 emails) for a product launching in one week. Build anticipation by revealing features one by one.

Product Descriptions

31. Write a 100-word product description for [Product Name]. Focus on sensory details (sight, touch, smell) and the emotional benefit of owning it.
32. Create a bullet-point feature list for [Product] that translates technical specifications into customer benefits. Example: "512GB Storage" becomes "Space for 100,000 photos."
33. Write a short, punchy product description for a social media bio. Limit to 50 characters. Include the main benefit and a call-to-action.
34. Draft a detailed product description for [Product] targeting [Specific Demographic]. Use language that resonates with their lifestyle and values.
35. Write a "Why You'll Love This" section for [Product]. List three unexpected uses or benefits that customers might not have considered.
36. Create a FAQ section for [Product] based on common customer queries: [Question 1], [Question 2], [Question 3]. Keep answers concise and reassuring.
37. Write a product description that addresses the top objection: [Objection]. Explain how [Product] solves this specific concern.
38. Draft a description for a bundle offer consisting of [Item A] and [Item B]. Explain why these items work better together than separately.

39. Write a "Behind the Scenes" description for [Product]. Tell the story of how it was made, focusing on craftsmanship and attention to detail.

40. Create a product description that uses social proof. Incorporate a short quote from a satisfied customer about [Specific Feature].

41. Write a description for a digital product (e.g., ebook, course). Focus on the transformation the buyer will experience and the time they will save.

42. Draft a product description that highlights sustainability or ethical sourcing, if applicable. Explain the impact on the environment/community.

43. Write a "Compare and Contrast" description explaining how [Product] differs from the standard/cheap version of the same item.

44. Create a product description that uses sensory language to evoke a specific emotion, such as relaxation, excitement, or confidence.

45. Write a short description for a limited-edition product. Emphasize scarcity and exclusivity to drive immediate action.

Social Media Posts

46. Write a 10-day social media content calendar for [Business Type]. Mix educational, promotional, and entertaining posts. Include captions and hashtag suggestions.

47. Create a LinkedIn post sharing a key lesson learned from a recent business challenge. Keep it vulnerable, professional, and end with a question to the audience.

48. Write an Instagram caption for [Product Photo]. Use a hook in the first line, tell a micro-story in the middle, and include a clear CTA in the last line.

49. Draft a Twitter/X thread (5 tweets) explaining [Complex Topic] in simple terms for small business owners.

50. Write a Facebook post announcing a community event. Include date, time, location, and a reason why local customers should attend.

51. Create a "Myth vs. Fact" post for [Industry]. List three common myths and debunk them with credible information.

52. Write a behind-the-scenes Instagram Story script. Include text overlays and voiceover notes for a 3-step process video.

53. Draft a poll question for LinkedIn to engage followers about [Industry Topic]. Provide three options that reveal different perspectives.
54. Write a celebratory post for a business milestone (e.g., 100th customer, 1st anniversary).
Thank
the team and customers, and share a photo idea.
55. Create a "Tip of the Day" post for [Target Audience]. Provide one actionable tip related to [Topic] and ask them to try it.
56. Write a user-generated content (UGC) request post. Encourage customers to tag the brand and use a specific hashtag to be featured.
57. Draft a video script for a 30-second TikTok/Reel introducing [Product]. Focus on a quick demonstration or a "before and after" scenario.
58. Write a post that shares a personal story