Section 4: Sales Objection Response Scripts

1. Price Too High: "I completely understand. Price is a factor, but let's look at the cost of inaction. If we solve [Specific Problem], how much is that saving you per month? If it saves you [Amount], does the investment make more sense when viewed against that return?"
2. Need to Think About It: "That's fair. To help you make the decision, what is the one specific concern keeping you from moving forward right now? Let's address that directly so you can proceed with confidence."
3. Already Have a Solution: "I'm glad you have a solution. What do you like about it currently? And is there anything about it that's frustrating or leaving money on the table? We often find that clients use us to handle the [Specific Pain Point] their current solution struggles with."
4. Bad Timing: "I understand you're busy. What does your timeline look like for when this becomes a priority? If I can show you how we can start with a small, low-commitment step now, would that be easier to fit into your current calendar?"
5. Need Approval: "Understood. Who else is involved in the decision? What do they typically need to see to say yes? Let's prepare a one-page summary highlighting the ROI and key benefits so you can present it to them easily."
6. Not a Priority: "That makes sense. What is the primary priority for your team right now? How does [Your Solution] support that priority, or how does neglecting [Problem] impact that top priority? Let's connect the dots."
7. Send Me Info: "I'd be happy to send that over. To ensure I send the most relevant materials, what are the top two challenges you're facing right now? I'll tailor the deck to address those specifically."
8. Call Me Later: "Sure, I don't want to take up your time. What is the best time and day for me to call you back? Also, could you share the top question you'll want answered when we speak? I'll be ready with the answer."
9. Competitors Cheaper: "They are a great company. However, when you compare the total cost of ownership, including [Support/Training/Implementation Time], how does that stack up? We focus on [Unique Differentiator] which reduces long-term costs by [Metric]."
10. No Budget: "I get it, budgets are tight. If budget wasn't an issue, would this be a project you'd want to solve right now? If yes, can we discuss a phased approach or a smaller pilot project to get started within your current constraints?"
